

Operation Policy

- Environment – People – Community -

Assured sourcing & quality inspection of industrial components

Check Point Group shall follow laws and regulations and in consultation with the staff create and maintain a health and safety work environment. To create such work environment all risks and improvements shall be managed together with staff.

All activities and commitments that Check Point Group perform shall be understood as an expression of quality.

By following the laws and regulations, Check Point China shall protect the environment, prevent pollution and conserve resources for a long-term responsibility for our overall environment

The company shall create profitability to enable growth and development opportunities for the company, its employees, customers and suppliers.

We shall seek continuous improvement in all aspects of our operation to develop the benefits with selected stakeholders

Nässjö 2025-02-27

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Johan Fälth'.

Johan Fälth CEO